

AstraZeneca

D0000C00020 - Site Feasibility Documentation

Astrizumab (AZD-3003) - Phase III - Severe uncontrolled asthma

SYNTHETIC DOCUMENT. Created for Snowflake hands-on lab purposes. All sites, investigators, study codes and responses are fictional.

Core Information

Salutation Dr.

First Name Suresh

Last Name Iyer

Institution/Practice/Clinic Name Hyderabad Chest and Allergy Institute

Town/City Hyderabad

Country India

Site Reference SITE_004

Office Email Address suresh.iyer@site_004.example.org

Which of the following best describes your primary therapeutic area of specialty?

Asthma

Is the Principal Investigator or other designee completing this survey?

PI

Patient Population and Recruitment

1. How many patients with Severe uncontrolled asthma do you see at your site per year?

40

2. Based on the inclusion and exclusion criteria, how many patients do you estimate you can screen and enrol into this study?

Patients screened per year: 26

Patients enrolled per year: 17

3. How many ongoing or future studies would compete for this patient population?

1

4. What is the estimated duration, in weeks, from receipt of the final protocol to first patient in?

7

Study Assessments

5. Would storing samples at minus 70 degrees Celsius present a difficulty at your site?

Yes

Site Capabilities

6. What testing capabilities and equipment does your site have?

The following are available at this site:

Spirometry
12 Lead ECG
Whole Blood Sampling (Ambient)
Serum sample (frozen)
Centrifuge
eCOA Device
Electronic data capture system
Sample Shipping
X-Ray
Urinalysis
On-site Pharmacy
Refrigerated Sample Storage

Local Laboratory

7. Which local lab type will you be using?

On-site Lab: Inside the institution

8. Does your facility have an on-site certified local lab?

Yes

9. Does your lab have a dedicated place to store patient samples?

Yes

Additional Comments

10. Please add any further comments on the protocol or screening thresholds.

Our site does not currently have -70°C freezer available on site. We would need to refer to a third party facility, which may extend the screening window beyond the protocol requirement.